

LETHBRIDGE SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 51

Approved: March 12, 2001
Amended: January 12, 2010
Amended: June 27, 2017

203.2 Long-range Planning

Policy

The Board shall direct the Superintendent to develop long-range District education plans that support District goals and priorities.

The Board expects that all District plans shall be in accordance with District policy, the School Act and other applicable provincial and federal statutes and regulations.

Regulations

1. Long-range District plans should normally cover three years.
2. The Combined District Three Year Education Plan and Annual Education Results Report shall be developed and implemented on an annual basis.
3. The Board may conduct other long-range planning activities or reviews to provide direction to planning of programs, facilities, or services over a longer-term basis.

The Board delegates to the Superintendent the authority to develop the procedures necessary to implement this policy.
