

405.6.A Employee Recognition and Appreciation

Programs

The recognition of success and the dissemination of news regarding the accomplishments of people both serve to improve the morale of the persons recognized, the District and the community. Recognition and appreciation can be accomplished by but is not limited to each of the following:

All Employees:

Long Service Awards, 51/25 Club, Board Retirement Dinner, Recognition at Board Meetings, Inclusion in the Annual Report, Welcome Back Breakfast, Employee Wellness Program, Employee Fitness Program, Employee Purchase Program for technology, District 51 clothing line, Informal recognition through cards and letters of congratulation, and sympathy cards

Teachers:

Excellence in Teaching Awards, Edwin Parr Award for a beginning teacher, ATA Specialist Council Awards, provincial and national recognition programs, and the Administrators' Dinner

Students:

Awards and scholarships, Medallions for graduates, Publication of names of Rutherford Scholarship recipients, Recognition at Board Meetings, Informal recognition through cards and letters of congratulation

Volunteers:

Certificates of appreciation, Recognition at Board Meetings, Informal recognition through cards and letters of congratulation

Exhibit