

402.12 Staff Learning

Policy

The Board directs that procedures be developed for the facilitation of staff learning opportunities in accordance with other Board policy and employee collective agreements.

Regulations

1. Staff learning activities may include:
 - 1.1. on-the-job experiences;
 - 1.2. mentorship;
 - 1.3. non-credit, credit and certificate courses;
 - 1.4. in-house in-service programs;
 - 1.5. conferences, conventions, seminars, workshops, etc.; and
 - 1.6. personal study.
2. Individual staff learning refers to the growth experiences that support personally identified learning needs. All staff members have the responsibility for their own growth, in accordance with District policy.
3. School-based staff learning provides a set of collective experiences involving individuals in the context in which they work. While the main focus is on the achievement of school goals, individual growth is also an important component.
4. Staff learning activities developed and implemented at the school level shall be administered under the general supervision of the Principal, or designate.
 - 4.1. The annual plan for school-based staff learning activities shall be included as part of the school's education plan.

402.12 Staff Learning...

5. Staff learning at the District level provides for universal growth experiences for the benefit of employees across the District. These learning activities may originate from a variety of sources, such as Directors, school requests, or related committee work, and may relate to implementation of identified curriculum needs. Staff learning activities developed and implemented at the District level shall be administered under the general supervision of the Superintendent or designate.
6. Staff learning activities specific to employees not assigned to a school shall be administered under the general supervision of the employee's immediate supervisor.
7. All staff learning activities that require an employee leave of absence shall be in accordance with employee collective agreements and District policy.

The Board delegates to the Superintendent the authority to develop the procedures necessary to implement this policy.
