

805.6.E Performing Arts

As part of the normal operation of a school's performing arts program, student personal information is compiled consisting of student name, grade level, and sometimes area of specialty within the arts program. Typically, this information is distributed to schools and/or agencies hosting competitions or performances and the various print and broadcast media. In addition, we encourage an open relationship with the print and broadcast media in their endeavours of promoting and reporting on school performing arts programs. For the purpose of registration, program printing and the promotion and reporting of the performing arts, it is considered important that the information disclosures listed below continue.

Student performing artist:

- may be interviewed by the print/broadcast media;
- may be photographed/video-taped by the print/broadcast media;
- may have their program information disclosed to the print/broadcast media;
- will have their program information distributed to schools and/or agencies hosting competitions.

This only applies to the disclosure of information in situations which are directly related to the student's involvement with the school's performing arts program.

Questions or concerns should be identified in writing to the appropriate instructor or school principal.
